What Methodists Hold. "When the Catholic doctrine emphasizes the position that the bread and wine possess an intristic virtue, Methodists hold the the efficacy is in the memory and the power to recall the love of God as revealed through Calvary's sacrifice; which memory begets in the partaker of the sacrament new asperations for holiness and renewed devotion to diety. "In other words, while the Catholic transubstatiation holds the virtue to lie in the bread and wine, we maintain that it lies in the attitude of the recipient of the sacrament. They hold the efficacy and pain is in the pulpit; we hold that it is in the pew.

"The doctrine of transubstantiation has a tendency to enshrine the minister almost as one having miraculous power, while it begets in the hearts of people an awe and superstition which says the church is everything.

MISS T. D. N.-Here is a wrinkle-removing formula which has already become amons because of its quick action in rendering the skin plume and vigorous and thereby eliminating all fraces and lines of age. Mix two tablespoonfuls of glycerine and two ounces of eptol in a half pint of water. The result is a beautiful cream of vonderini absorbent qualities. Big and little wrinkles, crow's feet and looseness of flesh disappear in a remarkably short time. The difference in the appearance of age will be quite startling.
